

october20

DONALD MACKENZIE

Donald Mackenzie, Organist of the Odeon Cinema in Leicester Square returns to All Souls bringing his special blend of music and humour. In the days before 'talkies', silent films were accompanied on the theatre organ. One of the few to keep this tradition alive is Donald Mackenzie. Those who have experienced Donald's masterly, witty accompaniments to silent films are unanimous in praise of this master of the 'Mighty Wurlitzer'! His programme will include the accompaniment to a classic silent film.

november17

D'ARCY TRINKWON: HOMMAGE TO JEANNE DEMESSIEUX

Our 2008 season concludes with a concert that pays tribute to one of the giants of the organ repertoire, the redoubtable Jeanne Demessieux. D'Arcy Trinkwon marks the 40th anniversary of her death in a programme that includes her famous set of Six Studies as well as other music that she herself played in concerts at All Souls.

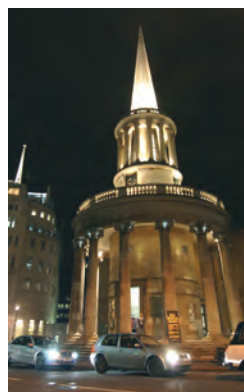

admission

by programme £7.50 (Concessions £5)

All Souls, Langham Place, London, W1
Tel: 020 7580 3522
www.allsouls.org
Tube: Oxford Circus

concerts

take place on the third Monday of the month from 7.30 until 8.45

Photographs by Anna Gordon © BBC

2008 International OrganSeries

ALL SOULS,
LANGHAM PLACE W1
Tel: 020 7580 3522
www.allsouls.org
Tube: Oxford Circus

april21

GERARD BROOKS
(Methodist Central Hall, Westminster)

In his farewell recital at All Souls, Gerard Brooks celebrates 20 years as Associate Director of Music at All Souls with a recital that encompasses transcriptions of Saint-Saëns, Mendelssohn's 6th Sonata and popular works by Mulet, Dubois and Guilmant.

may19

CHRISTOS PARASKEVOPOULOS with MARIANNA MANSOLA (Soprano)

Greek organist Christos Paraskevopoulos is joined by coloratura soprano Marianna Mansola in a popular programme of music for organ and voice.

june16

CATHERINE ENNIS (London)

Catherine Ennis has established a reputation as a charismatic performer and as an inspiring teacher of organ music. She currently teaches organ at Trinity College of Music, and is a frequent broadcaster on BBC Radios 3 and 4 as player and presenter. She plays a popular programme that includes music by Handel, Bach, Saint-Saëns, Ravel, Duruflé and Eric Coates' Dambusters March.

july21

OTTO KRAMER (Germany)
(in association with the London Organ Improvisation Course)

By popular demand, a welcome return by improviser extraordinaire Otto Kramer, who will be demonstrating in his concert how much music can be made without a single written note! He gives regular organ concerts, with an emphasis on improvisation through the ages. Arrive with your themes!

august18

MICHAEL ECKERLE (Germany)

Michael Eckerle is one of Germany's most charismatic players, with a wide repertoire, particularly in the field of romantic and contemporary music. He studied in Regensburg, gaining the highest possible marks in organ and improvisation and has made many recordings. Critics have spoken of his "outstanding technique, musicality and colourful registrations". Michael Eckerle has played in concerts in Austria, France, Great Britain, Italy, Switzerland, Spain, Poland and the USA. He makes a welcome return to All Souls.

september15

THE MIDAS TOUCH

Roger Sayer & Charles Andrews present an exciting programme of duets, featuring their specially-commissioned arrangements of James Bond themes.

2008
International
OrganSeries